I am returning the documents sent April 25, 2014.

The document request was not made to your office.

I will not pay extortionate prices for copies. Threats to never release documents in the future unless I pay $1/page and in this case $25, is inappropriate and I see it as a way to discourage co-op owners from conducting their business.

Note that the original request for documents has not been fulfilled.
