Please write in your own words a specific statement about what you believe the lawyer did that was wrong. Try to give mainly factual examples of the attorney's misconduct. To the extent possible, include each date that you contacted (or had contact with) the attorney, what occurred on that date, what it was that you believe the attorney did wrong on that date, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the people who were present with you, if any. Please attach additional pages as necessary. A narrative explanation of the problem is required. You must include any information which you would like the Board to consider in its evaluation of your complaint. Please do not send any original documents with your complaint. Instead, make copies of the documents that you want the Board to consider and include them with your complaint.

Do not write above this line.
