

August 13, 2010

To whom it may concern:

A committee was appointed by the President of Socorro Electric Cooperative to investigate certain financial irregularities reported under the whistle blower policy of the cooperative.

Two SEC employees have been placed on unpaid leave for an indefinite period while the investigation proceeds.

Until the committee completes its investigation, there will be no further statements from the Board of Trustees or the cooperative regarding this matter.