

112812 – Inquisition questions – See videos on Informed Cynic

1 – Did you in your capacity as a trustee contact the co-op’s vendor, Election Services, without disclosing it to the (co-op) manager or the president of the board?

2 - Did you, in your capacity as a trustee ask the vendor to keep your contact secret (later revised to “contact confidential”)

3 - Did you contact the Election Services on behalf of the co-op reform committee? (Repeats question adding “... of the SEC reform committee”)

4 – Did anyone on the reform committee ask you to do that?

5 – Did you tell the vendor if they help you draft the language for by-law revisions members of the reform committee would make sure the vendor got the contract for the elections in 2013.

6 - Are you aware that the policies of this board that the official spokesperson of the board is the president?

7 – Are you aware that as a trustee, any request for information or data can be relayed only through the manager.

8 – Are you aware that co-op policies provide that in no case may a trustee seek information through employees, agents or independent contractors

9 – Did the president of the board give you authority to contact the vendor and ask for help for the Socorro Electric Co-op reform committee?

10 – Did the co-op manager give you that authority?

11 – are you aware that trustees are not to receive any personal benefit from any co-op member? Are you aware of that? Speak up, I can’t hear you.