

Subject: April events and new staff member

From: New Mexico Environmental Law Center <nmelc@nmelc.org>

Date: 4/5/2019, 4:27 PM

To: James Cherry <jcherry@gilanet.com>

A monthly snapshot of how your support makes a difference for New Mexico.

April 2019

Welcome Matt!

Meet Matt Mirarchi, our new Development Officer, responsible for foundation proposals and reporting. Born and raised in Alabama, Matt relocated most recently from Seattle – in March 2019, just in time to see our job announcement. When he left the Southeast, Matt traded in his former career as an archaeologist to transition into nonprofit work. He has held a number of fundraising/development positions at various nonprofits, each of which focused on distinct issue areas, including: shaping equitable social and economic state policies (WA); promoting the growth,