

What NMBMR researchers think the San Agustin Plains would look like from the south without basin-fill. Dark tans show bedrock topography beneath the basin-fill. The proposed development is along western edge of North Basin. Distance from the Very Large Array to Datil is 14 miles.

SOURCE: New Mexico Bureau of Geology and Mineral Resources